

MOST TRULY YOURS

Aunt Anne

Presented by

the GILCHRIST COLLECTIVE

Peter & Barbara Snape, Brian Peters, Sue Burgess, Poppy Weatherall and special guests celebrate Anne Gilchrist's contribution to folk music through the songs she collected in an entertaining evening combining archive footage, captivating story-telling and enchanting music with a fascinating perspective on local social history.

Anne Gilchrist spent much of her long life dedicated to collecting and studying folk song, music and local traditions, a number of which came from her home county of Lancashire and especially from the Sunderland Point area.

She received an OBE in 1948 for services to folk music and was awarded the Gold Badge of the English Folk Dance & Song Society in 1938.

2023 marks the Diamond Jubilee of Anne Geddes Gilchrist's OBE award and it is a fitting tribute that in this 75th year the Gilchrist Collective have brought her story and the songs she collected to the attention of folk song enthusiasts nationally.

'Most Truly Yours, Aunt Anne' will open with a welcoming set from Sunderland Point folk duo Lunetide and in keeping with this special event, will also include songs from Anne Gilchrist's great great niece, Heather Walker and her family.
